ABOUT

Asthra is a national level technical symposium held on the ground of our college every year, which is entirely made and run by the students of Dept. Computer Science. The footprints of last 3 episodes show a warm acceptance by the IT community across the globe for its inherent creativity and scholarly ambience.

The technical events delve deep into the computations of Information Technology as well as the accumulation of knowledge.

This extravaganza is an action packed two day carnival that promises nothing but unforgettable memories and experiences.
